Turin, Octob. 3. N. S. The King and Queen being returned from Sicily, and on the Road to this Capital, were met the 1ſt Inſtant at Carignan by our Magiſtrates in a Body, and by the Governor the Marquis de Carail, and the ſame Day they made their Entry into this City. Their Majeſties and the Princes their Sons were in a Travelling Coach, the Dutcheſs Dowager with the Princes and Princeſſes of the Blood were in another, followed by the Ladies, Officers and Gentlemen of their Majeſties Houſhold and Retinue in ſeveral Coaches, a Detatchment of the Horſe Guards cloſing the March. The Governor having come back hither before them, ſtood ready at the Gate to preſent the Keys to the King. At their Majeſties entrance the Cannon on the Ramparts were diſcharged; and as they paſſed thro' the Square of St. Charles, the Burghers who were drawn up in two Lines, fired their Muſquets, as did the two Battalions of Hachbret and the Regiment of Schulembourg, which were poſted in the Square before the Cathedral; where their Majeſty's alighting, were received at the Door of the Church by the Clergy, Nobility, and others of Diſtinction: Their Majeſties going up to the High-Altar, the Choir Sung the Te Deum to Muſick, the Artillery firing a ſecond time: Their Majeſties having received the Benediction of the Vicar-General, (who Officiated in chief, the Archbiſhop being dead) and having performed their Devotions in a Chappel of the Cathedral, proceeded to the Court: The Cannon gave a third Salvo at their entring the Palace, where they were received and complimented by all the Ladies in the great Hall of the Swiſs Guards, and by the Magiſtrates and Senate in the State Room; and then their Majeſties being fatigued retired from Company. It having rained continually for ſeveral Days paſt till this Morning, the Nobility have been hindred from making a Cavalcade as they deſigned in Honour of their Majeſties; the Rain has likewiſe prevented the finiſhing a Triumphal Arch, and the playing of a Firework. This Court have revived the Ceremonial that was obſerved here before the laſt War, according to which the Knights of the Order, the Miniſters of State, and the Captains of the Guards, with the Gentlemen of the Bed-Chamber, when in waiting, are the only Perſons allowed to enter the Chambers of the King and Queen, all others being obliged to keep in the Anti-chambers and State Rooms. The Count de Wartlin is left Governor of Meſſina, and the Marquis d'Andourne Governor of Palermo. The Commadore of the Britiſh Ships of War which were of the Convoy that came with their Majeſties from Sicily to Villa-franca, being come hither with the other Officers of thoſe Ships, the King has made him a Preſent of his Picture ſet with Diamonds, and preſented the other Officers in proportion; the Queen has likewiſe been very liberal in her Acknowledgments to them.

Turin, October 6. N. S. Since the Arrival of the King and Queen, the Confluence of the Nobility and Ladies at Court has been very great, and they have appeared in the utmoſt Magnificence of Dreſs and Equipage: The Queen has had a Circle every Evening, at which the King has been preſent; but yeſterday the Court went into Mourning again for the Death of the Queen of Great Britain. The Deputies of divers Towns of Savoy and Piemont, who came hither to Congratulate the King and Queen on their Arrival, ſet out on their return yeſterday; as did likewiſe moſt of the Gentlemen who came hither on the ſame Occaſion, and have no Employment at Court. The Weather being ſettled fair, and a Triumphal-Arch repreſenting the Temple of Glory being finiſhed, all the Houſes of the City began to be illuminated laſt Night; and this will be continued every Night to the 7th, when the ſaid Arch will be illuminated with ſeveral thouſand Lights, and the Firework erected before the Town-Houſe will be let off. The Company of Sicilian Life-Guards, form'd entirely of Gentlemen of that Kingdom, choſen out of the beſt Families, ſome of which bear the Title of Princes, is expected here very ſoon, the greateſt part of them being actually arrived at Coni, The new Battalion of Sicilians, with the Swiſs Guards, and thoſe of the Palace, which are already arrived in this Country from Sicily, are likewiſe expected in a few Days.
